Series – HO 17, Piece Number - 79, Item Number – OV14

To the Right Honourable Lord Duncannon Secretary of State for the Home Department

The humble Petition of Norah Denny – widow and her son Joseph Denny

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioners were convicted at the Sessions lately held at the Old bailey, the son, for abstracting money and trinkets from the residence of Mr Dears Solicitor his employer and sentenced to be transported for LIFE and the mother for 14 years for receiving the same.

Your Petitioners feel the greatest [ ] for their offence and sorely lament that they should commit any crime against society.

Your Petitioner humbly and ardently implore that mercy may be extended to them, by the mitigation of some portion of their punishment, to enable them to prove by the [ ] of their conduct the sincerity of their contrition.

And your Petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.
