To His Excellency Earl De Gray Lord Lieutenant, Governor and General Governor of Ireland

The memorial of Mary Thorpe a prisoner in Grange Gorman Law Penitentiary
Humbly Sheweth

That your Memorialist was tried before John Schoales Esq^r Assistant Barrister for the Queens County at the October Quarter Sessions Maryborough 1841, and sentenced to be transported for seven years for stealing some wearing apparel which she was induced to do, from want, she having no place of service where she could earn her livelihood.

Your Memorialist is very sorry that she was tempted to break the laws of her country and if your Excellency be pleased to take her into your humane Consideration and Mitigate her sentence to any period of Imprisonment your Excellency pleases she most sincerely promises she will earn her bread by honest industry and never break the Laws of her Country any more, and Memorialist will be for ever

Bound to pray,
Mary Thorp
