To The King's Most Excellent Majesty

The humble Petition of ELEANOR LANGUAGE

Most Respectfully Sheweth

That your petitioner was convicted of a small crime at tje last sessions of Oyes and Termes held at Yarmouth[September] 22nd 1829 and received sentence of transportation for the space of seven years beyond the Seas.

Your petitioner farther state that it is her first offence and was committed in an unguarded moment for which she feels the deepest contrition. And your Petitioner likewise observes to add to her misfortune she has two male children unable to a friend themselves who are deprived of your petitioners services through her confinement. Your petitioner therefore humbly implores your most gracious Majesty out of your great compassion to extend your Royal Clemency towards your petitioner so that she may not be sent out of the Country from her disconsolate family and your petitione ras in duty bound will ever pray.
