2nd February 1850

The mother of Fanny Johnson now a convict at Millbank Prison No 3297 begs me to address you on behalf of her daughter to forward the accompanying Testimonial

I do so to gratify the poor woman, the mother particularly wishes if it is not contrary to regulations of the Parliament that her daughter may not be sent out of this country. Fanny Johnson was some [ ] ] in my Sunday School and conducted herself very well.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Yours faithfully

N Jollis

This is to state that Fanny Johnson who acted as Servant in my house for 7 months was honest and industrious
