Sir,

In reference to the Memorial of Robert & Mary Logue, herewith returned, on Behalf of their Daughter Jane Logue, I have the honor to Report for the information of the Lord's Justices, in Reply to your letter of the 25th ins^t. that I consider Jane Logue a proper object, from the circumstances stated in the Memorial of her Parents a proper object for a commutation of sentence.

The Prisoner was convicted as a vagrant & ordered to find moderate Bail or to be transported for 7 years, in Default of Bail. It now appears, that her Parents are respectable, as testified by the Certificate of the Magistrate, & are willing again to receive her notwithstanding her Errors, into their family. She herself professes great contrition & a resolution to abandon her desperate course of life – I am of opinion therefore she should be discharged upon entering into her own recognizance to keep the peace &c.

I have the Honor to be y^r ob^t ser^t

To his Excellency, The Earl of Bessborough Lord Lieutenant General
& General Governor of Ireland

The humble Petition of Robert Logue of Sion Mill in the County of Tyrone
Linen Black, & Mary Logue, his wife.

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioners are the Father and Mother of Jane Logue who is now a Prisoner in the Gaol of Londonderry under sentence of transportation.

That your Petitioners have reared a Family of Eight Children – four Boys, and four girls, in an humble, but comfortable and decent manner.

That their two Eldest Boys are now young Men, married, and living with their wives and Families away from your Petitioners, that there are five, two Boys and three girls, still unmarried and living at home with your Petitioners.

That Petitioners eig[h]th child, namely of their Daughter Jane Logue, now nineteen years of age, about three years ago, happened with a misfortune, strayed away from the Paths of Virtue, and was ashamed to return to her Family.

That their unfortunate Daughter Jane has sent a message to your Petitioners to know if they would permit her to return home to her Family and will abandon the Paths of Vice forever. That Petitioners [2 or 3 words illegible] children who are now living with them, will return thanks to Divine Providence, and will be forever grateful, and will pray for the health, prosperity and happiness of your Excellency, if your Excellency will be graciously pleased to permit their unfortunate Daughter Jane to return to her Family, who will joyfully and gratefully receive her once more.

And your Petitioners will ever pray
Robert Logue

The Humble Petition of Jane Logue
a Prisoner in the Gaol of Londonderry.

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioner yesterday sent an humble Petition to your Excellency, jointly with Eliza White, Anne Mulholland and Mary McGinty – they and your Petitioner being under sentence of transportation for seven years.

That your Petitioner’s Father and Mother Brothers and Sisters, have been with your Petitioner, and have all consented (except those who are married and being with their wives) to take your Petitioner home and forgive her all her past transgressions if your Excellency will be graciously pleased to permit it.

That your Petitioner most humbly, sincerely and solemnly promises your Excellency, as she has already promised her Father and Mother, Brothers & Sisters that if your Excellency will be graciously pleased to let her home once more to her Family, her first act, after returning her grateful thanks to Divine Providence, will be to go before her Clergy and make the same promise to him, namely that she will abandon forever her past weaknesses and sinful life.
