

Mary Taylor per Edward 1834 - ID 4108

To Lord Melbourne Secretary of State

The humble Petition of MARY TAYLORSON mother of MARY TAYLOR who was most unfortunately sentenced to 14 years transportation on Thursday last at Horsemonger Lane gaol.

I believe it is called the Session House where she was tried and condemned Petitioner humbly trusts your Lordship will pardon the great liberty Petitioner has taken in [] her care, but Petitioner is seventy five years of age and in very bad health and hitherto her unfortunate daughter MARY TAYLOR has [] supported her. MARY TAYLOR my unfortunate daughter was taken to Horsemonger Lane for taking of a wine glass from Mr Castleman in Newington Lane. My sad daughter has even been a hard working industrious woman but for great [] lately has [] a little and she at the time was in liquar and did not know where she was about as she had been intended with [] to a good amount many times.

May I hope and beg your Lordship will be pleased to lay on state this humble Petition to His Most Gracious Majesty, humbly hoping His gracious majesty will be pleased to remit the punishment of 14 years imprisonment as I am unable to work from very bad health and must [] [] if she is sent abroad as I have not any other child nor anyone to assist me humbly trusting your Lordship will [] and pardon this liberty and if it is possible let her not be sent away. The said MARY TAYLOR is 55 years old and distress had brought her to this disgrace having been brought up much better and her husband died and left her in great distress.

And petitioner will ever pray
