

RHODA GUNN per Emma Eugenia 1841

On account of her contrition and previous good character the Prosecutor and Jury recommend her to mercy.

To the Marquis of Normanby, the Secretary of State

My Lord

We the undersigned most humbly beg your Lordship to take into your gracious consideration the case of RHODA GUNN who was tried at the last Quarter Sessions of the Borough of Cambridge and a verdict of GUILTY having been returned she receive sentence of seven years transportation. In consequence of her grief, previous good character, and it having been her first offence, she was very strongly recommended to mercy, both by the Prosecutor and the Jury which was warmly responded to by the recorder. In the hope of a mitigation of punishment both Prosecutor and Jury further recommend her as an object of mercy, and should her case be considered of favourably by your Lordship, it, will confer a great favour on your Petitioners, who will in duty bound with gratitude ever pray.
