

Sarah Wood per Harmony 1828 - ID W122H

To the Right Honourable Robert Peel His Majesty's Principle Secretary of State for the Home Department

The humble Petition of SARAH WOOD now a prisoner in Newgate

Most Respectfully and Most Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioner was tried and convicted at the last sessions and sentenced to seven years transportation. Deeply impressed with a sense of the enormity of her offence your humble Petitioner ventures to crave your merciful consideration not to send her abroad but to allow and suffer the above term of punishment in the Penitentiary at Millbank.

That your Petitioner has an aged mother who will suffer very deeply by being alienated from a most unworthy 11child, but who never the less has promised to receive her again.

Should His Majesty be most graciously pleased to listen to and grant the prayer of this his humble Petitioner her aged mother and herself will as in duty bound ever pray.

Sarah Wood

We the undersigned inhabitants and housekeepers of London do most humbly recommend the above Petition to the merciful consideration of His Majesty
