To the Most Noble The Marquis of Normanby Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department.

The Petition of Elizabeth Green a prisoner in the Penitentiary at Millbank.

Humbly Sheweth

That your prisoner was convicted at the Central Criminal Court in the May Sessions last of stealing a counterpane , a sheet, blankets, and a copper stew pan, and was sentenced to be transported for the term of seven years. That your prisoner had now been confined aboard five months and can confidently refer to the authorities of the above prison had to her conduct and demeanour during that time.

That your prisoner was driven to commit the act of which she had been convicted by the distress in which she had been left by the desertion by her husband and now deeply sensible of her guilt and [ ] []. That your prisoner had an aged mother by whom she had carefully brought up and whose life your Petitioner verily believes would be sacrificed if your Petitioner were to be sent out of this country.

That your Petitioner humbly prays your Lordship to take her case into consideration and so far to mitigate her sentence as to permit her to remain in England.

And your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.
